SUBJECT: USF Police to conduct Sobriety Checkpoint

TAMPA: The University of South Florida Police Department will host a one-hour Sobriety Checkpoint on the USF Campus on April 29, 2014 beginning at 11:00 pm. The checkpoint operation will be immediately followed by a four-hour saturation patrol. During this time, USF Police Officers will seek to identify impaired drivers in an effort to keep our streets safe. Impaired drivers that are identified will face arrest and prosecution. This operation is part of a comprehensive, collaborative approach to traffic safety by the USF Police Department.

The USF Police Department is an award winning, accredited full-service law enforcement agency with primary jurisdiction on and about property owned or controlled by the University of South Florida. The USF Police Department is fully committed to traffic safety and actively engages in education and enforcement.
