ITALIAN FOOD IN FILM

Would you like to learn more about food? Slow Food movement? Mediterranean Diet? Biodiversity? Food politics? Food waste? Food justice? Would you also like to acquire 'food wisdom', practical cooking skills, and connoisseurship that have an impact on your life? Well, you should take this class... This course explores eating, one of the most basic acts in our lives, as represented in different cinematic texts. Enroll in this class and earn credits towards the Global Citizen Award Certificate! This class was one of the very first selected to be certified. When you apply for a Global Citizen Award, you will be recognized at graduation as a Global Citizen Award recipient!
