We believe it is important for employers to recognize the commitment and dedication necessary for a student to successfully complete the University of South Florida's weekend Executive MBA Program. The Program requires the commitment of the student to attend classes one Friday and two Saturdays a month for twenty months and the International Study Program for one week in May, June or July during their first year in the program.

Your signature below indicates that you are aware of the applicant's intent to participate in our Program. If this applicant is accepted, your organization agrees to allow the participant to attend classes during the times indicated above. Please use the space provided below if you would like to include any comments regarding the applicant's participation in the Program.
