Utilizing Culturally Response Evaluation Approaches for Broadening Participation Initiatives

Shetay Ashford, M.S.

This presentation will provide a rationale for using Culturally Relevant Evaluation (CRE) approaches to evaluate broadening participation initiatives. In particular, this presentation will address how CRE can help evaluators enhance the effectiveness of programs that target underrepresented minorities and women. During this workshop, participants can expect to learn:

1. Examples of Culturally Relevant Evaluation (CRE) approaches.
2. Review of the National Science Foundation's Framework for Evaluating Impacts of Broadening Participation Projects.
3. Rationale for utilizing CRE approaches to evaluate broadening participation initiatives.
