MANAGEMENT-ORIENTED EVALUATION:

Considerations for K-8 students transitioning to High School

Presented by:
Joy Davis Lee
soulsndreams@gmail.com

K-8 students attend the same school for eight years. There is a significant amount of development that takes place during those years that are nurtured and protected within the school. This level of continuity granted a student is unique. Eighth grade K-8 students make their first transition at high school and certain considerations should be evaluated.
