

2024-2025

Jack B. Richardson Endowed Scholarship in Autism Spectrum Disorders

To support scholarships for full or part-time students enrolled in a USF ESE degree program and in the certificate program for "Autism Spectrum Disorders" or the "Disabilities Education: Severe/Profound". Graduate students who already have their ESE degree and are now enrolled in the certificate program may also qualify.

Application Procedures

- Form must be accompanied by the required essay
- Applicants must be officially admitted to the certificate program (described above)
- Return this completed form and essay to EDUScholarships@usf.edu no later than Friday, September 13, 2024.
- Awardees will be notified via their USF email.

Essay Prompt

Please include a one-page essay describing your commitment to Special Education and your long-term career goals.

Name _____ UID _____

Campus Tampa St. Pete Sarasota/Manatee GPA _____

Please let us know if you are currently enrolled in an ESE degree program or if you already hold an ESE degree (include year received). Also include which certificate program you are enrolled in.

USF Email _____ Expected Graduation Date _____

Have you previously received any of the Richardson Family Scholarships? _____

Applications submitted without the required essay will be considered incomplete.

Return this completed form and essay to EDUScholarships@usf.edu no later than Friday, August 9, 2024.

By submitting this application, you authorize the release of your academic, enrollment, and Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) information to be used during the review process. If you are selected to receive a scholarship, you authorize your photographic image (from your USF ID card) to be released to your donor in connection with the USF Foundation's donor stewardship initiatives.