

2023 - 2024 Orientation Leader Information Packet

Dear USF Bull,

Congratulations on taking the first step to becoming an Orientation Leader (OL)! Serving the University as an Orientation Leader provides you the opportunity to assist in transitioning our newest Bulls to the USF family! Over the course of your time as an OL, you will provide leadership to new students, interact with family members, build relationships with University faculty and staff and be a part of making an impact on USF, all while developing personally and professionally.

Each year, USF admits thousands of new students – first year students, transfer students, and international students – all of which have their own separate Orientation programs. This information packet contains a detailed position description including qualifications and expectations, and a detailed description of the application process and selection timeline. Please pay close attention to instructions for completing and submitting the application materials!

We sincerely hope you will consider applying to be part of the Orientation team! Applications are open online on Monday, September 12, 2022 at 8:00am EST and are due online on October 9, 2022 at 11:59pm EST. Please note that late applications will not be considered. If you have any questions about the position or application, please do not hesitate to contact us!

Have a great day and GO BULLS!

Position Terms & Conditions

Orientation Sessions

Summer 2023 Orientation sessions run May 2023 through August 2023, with additional sessions offered prior to the start of Spring 2024 classes in December 2023 and January 2024. All dates and times provided on the OL Dates & Commitment page are TENTATIVE and subject to change depending on the finalization of the University calendar and Orientation planning.

Training

OLs are expected to be at all of the training dates provided on the OL Dates & Commitments pages. Additional training dates may be added as needed. Training is not optional and is required to serve in this position. While we do our best to provide you exact dates and times in advance, we want you to be as prepared as possible for this role, meaning sometimes training will go into the evenings or schedules may change with appropriate due notice. Please do not plan to work another job or have other commitments during training dates/times.

- Spring Leadership Training:

All Orientation Leaders are required to attend the Leadership Training in Spring 2023, which will take place once a week on Wednesdays (Please note: time and location is to be determined. The official class time will be provided prior to the completion of the interview process). If you are selected as an Alternate, you must also participate in the spring leadership training.

- Summer Training:

All Orientation leaders are required to participate in May 2023 training, which will take place every day during the whole month of May (weekends are not included). The official times and dates will be provided earlier in the spring semester.

Summer Classes/Work

OLs are expected to communicate with their supervisors before registering for summer classes or accepting any other commitments. Classes must be in asynchronous fully online format and no more than one class per summer term (summer terms are A, B, & C). Summer classes and any other commitments including part time jobs, internships, or volunteer opportunities must NOT conflict with any required trainings, Orientation sessions, and other Orientation functions; AND must be approved by your supervisor in advanced. In addition, you are expected to plan summer vacations and/or co-curricular activities around our summer break.

Orientation Sessions

OLs are required to participate at their assigned Orientation sessions that will be given out to them prior to the start of the May Training. During sessions, it is expected that OLs participate in all aspects of the Orientation sessions and have no outside commitments during this time.

Performance

There will be three required meetings with your supervisor: (1) upon hiring, (2) mid-spring semester check-in (3) first formal performance review mid-summer, and (3) a final formal performance review at the completion of the summer. The purpose of these reviews is to provide positive and constructive feedback on overall job performance.

Accountability

Accountability is critical to our ability to effectively operate as a team. Therefore, as a team, it is expected that each OL hold themselves and their teammates accountable to our standards, expectations, and competencies. In accordance with USF Human Resources policies as well, the following process will be followed to ensure accountability within our team:

Level 1: Oral Reprimand (includes a conversation with supervisor, official letter, and action plan)

Level 2: Written Reprimand and/or Probation (includes a conversation with supervisor, official letter, and action plan)

Level 3: Dismissal (includes a conversation with supervisor, official letter, etc.)

Should there be an incident that is deemed a major violation, the Office of Orientation reserves the right to terminate employment without a warning or probationary period. In some circumstances, your supervisor may use discretion for the betterment of the team.

What You Can Expect as an OL

The Office of Orientation is committed to your personal and professional growth and development. Therefore, you can expect the following from our staff:

1. Intentionally designed, high-quality leadership development training and experiences focused on building your competency in the areas of self-management, servant leadership, communication, critical thinking, emotional intelligence, congruence with purpose, and teamwork.
2. Training meetings and materials that will set you up to successfully facilitate/lead a group of students, work with families and guests of the population you serve, execute the logistics of a session, and prepare you to excel in your job duties as an OL.
3. Culture of trust that is characterized by open communication, honest feedback, and autonomy to do your job within the context of our guiding philosophies/processes.
4. Culture of growth that is exemplified by the professional staff and is visible by the constant pursuit of being better than we were the day before, every single day!
5. Opportunities to fine-tune skills and stretch your comfort zone as we will play on your strengths, but also challenge you to step outside of your comfort zone to gain new skills and increased self-confidence.

Application & Interview Process

Step 1: Submit Your Application

Applications are open on Monday, September 12, 2022 at 8:00am EST and are due by Sunday, October 9, 2022 at 11:59pm EST through an online submission. Applications can be found at: <https://bit.ly/OLApp2023>. No late applications will be accepted.

Step 2: Individual Interviews

After applications close, you will receive an e-mail from Orientation by Thursday, October 13, 2022 inviting you to continue in the interview process or releasing you from the process. If you are invited to continue, you must sign up for an Individual Interview date and time by Sunday, October 16, 2022 at 11:59pm EST or you will forfeit your candidacy. Individual Interviews will take place between Tuesday, October 18 through Friday, October 28, 2022.

Step 3: Orientation Leader Offers

After your Individual Interview, you will receive notification from the Office of Orientation on Wednesday, November 2, 2022 beginning at 12:00pm EST informing you of your final candidacy status.

If offered a position on the 2023-2024 Orientation Leader team, it must be accepted via signing the acceptance form and returning it to the Office of Orientation (John & Grace Allen Building, Office 102) on Monday, November 7, 2022 by 5:00pm EST.
