

Staff Quiet Quality Awards June 2013

- ▣ Samantha Van Dyke, Student Health Services, exhibits stellar work performance. She is very skilled at cultivating interpersonal relationships and is exceptionally team oriented. Samantha enthusiastically gives her time, her intelligence, and her efforts to our University of South Florida team.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards June 2013

- ▣ Anthony Pulliam, Students with Disabilities Services, has shown an extraordinary amount of conscientiousness. He has an extraordinary ability to maintain a professional and compassionate demeanor when interacting with faculty, students, and staff.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards May 2013

- ▣ Thora Collymore, International Services, is a valuable member of our team. She strives to bring the highest level of customer service to the students that she serves. Thora regularly goes above and beyond to find solutions to students problems so they can successfully transition to USF.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards May 2013

- ▣ Tammi Wilds, Tampa Library, goes beyond the call to ensure our E-Reserves are handled to the highest standards for USF Faculty on campus. Tammi is the kind of person that you can trust to see a project through to completion. Her faithfulness and dedication inspires us all to keep believing.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards May 2013

- ▣ Brenna Mathiasen, Academic Resources, has excellent work habits. She cares about doing her job effectively and it reflects in her work output. Brenna is very eager to learn new things and is enthusiastic in all her work endeavors. She has a very positive attitude and is adaptable to any situation that comes along.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards April 2013

- ▣ Chris Wenzel, Students with Disabilities Services, is timely, approachable, efficient, and creative. Chris goes out of his way to make sure that all materials and experiences are accessible to the students, staff, and faculty who interact with Students with Disabilities Services. Chris demonstrates great integrity and spirit.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards April 2013

- ▣ Anne Marie Jefferson, Housing & Residential Education, is such a unique and proud employee of USF. She demonstrates, on a daily basis, the most positive manner to her position in the Department of Housing. Every day she approaches her tasks and responsibilities with a unique, "upbeat" attitude.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards April 2013

- ▣ Vanessa Quintas, College of Education Office of Graduate Studies, is courteous, kind, giving, and very considerate. She makes the students and faculty comfortable and will assist them in any way possible. Vanessa is very creative and a great asset to USF and the College of Education.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards April 2013

- ▣ Sarah Moyer, School of Accountancy, College of Business, always maintains a good attitude and is courteous when working with others. She is also extremely creative and her efficiency and attention to detail make her an excellent staff assistant. Sarah is a true asset to the School of Accountancy.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards March 2013

- ▣ Melanie Martinez, College of Nursing, is extremely conscientious about her job and her co-workers. She is reliable, punctual, self-motivated, polite, and extremely focused. Her pleasant demeanor and positive work ethic makes all the difference. She is valued as a co-worker and team member.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards March 2013

- ▣ Mary Tuttle, USF Libraries, is a great team-oriented employee. She takes students under her wing and works closely with the staff, administration, and faculty members. Pat's caring attitude toward her work, her co-workers, and her loved ones makes Pat such a beloved member of the Library team.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards March 2013

- ▣ Beverly Harris-Johnson, Tampa Library, is a team player and has a pleasant attitude toward the public. Beverly makes sure all of her job duties and assignments are complete and timely. She is very dedicated to the needs of the department and works with her team to keep customers happy and work flowing. Beverly is an asset to our department.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards March 2013

- ▣ Suzette Lemrow, College of Nursing, is very detail oriented and makes every effort to be precise and accurate in all aspects of her role. Suzette is always willing to help others and assume additional responsibilities when needed. She completes her work on time and the end product demonstrates a high level of quality.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards February 2013

- ▣ Dorothy Kaluzny, USFSP Post Office, is extremely positive and professional in her interaction with university personnel. She is an excellent team member and has an extremely keen sense of responsibility. Dorothy goes way beyond the call of duty and her performance is outstanding.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards February 2013

- ▣ Terry Kroner, Financial Aid, goes above and beyond in her daily work. She always strives to make sure that no detail is overlooked when working with students. Terry is a very responsible employee. She is dependable, courteous, and inquisitive. She is very easy to work with and always positive and upbeat.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards February 2013

- ▣ Roberto Avergonzando, Chemistry, is one of the individuals who helps in making student success a reality. He gets along very well with all areas of our department. He has a very positive attitude and our department is lucky to have someone who is as knowledgeable as Roberto.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards February 2013

- ▣ Lindsay Warren, Central Space Office, is very positive and upbeat, and her performance is outstanding. It is her consistent positive attitude that helps to maintain great rapport within the Space community. Lindsay is a strong asset, not only to the office she works for, but to the university as a whole.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Nkenji Green, Psychological and Social Foundations, is a very polite and humble person. She is positive and enjoys helping others. Whenever you ask Nkenji to help with something, you can be assured it will be accomplished. It is a delight to be able to work with someone as professional and courteous as Nkenji!

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Stefanie Molitor, Ed Affairs, MCOM, has wonderful working relationships with her course directors and our OEA staff. She helps out without complaint, works well with our students, and always seeks to support them. Stefanie is always here for the department, students, & faculty. She is valued by all that work with her.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Phyllis Ridgeway, MCOM Student Affairs, is always positive and friendly toward everyone. Phyllis is a fastidious worker who always sees a job done to completion. Her attention to detail makes so many activities that benefit our students work well. She goes beyond what is expected and achieves excellence consistently.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Janice Forman, Undergraduate Advising, College of Business, is willing to help anyone at any time. She stops what she is doing to help, and is always willing to help. Janice sees what needs to be done and does it with out question. Janice is always cheerful and wears a smile.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards November 2012

- ▣ Karen Harper, College of Education, is always polite and consistently friendly with staff and faculty. Even when she is clearly occupied with work tasks, she will make time to take care of faculty requests. Karen is very team oriented.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Catherine Macaulay Heldreth, MCOM Student Affairs, goes out of her way to help students and is a joy to work with. Catherine will pretty much help anyone at any time. She works very collaboratively with the other divisions of Student Affairs to help them meet major deadlines. Her attitude and work ethic are a positive contribution to the department.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards January 2013

- ▣ Jill Baker, USF Health Shimberg Library, always acts in a professional manner and adds a personal touch with a warm smile. Jill is detail oriented, deadline sensitive, and one of the most responsible people I have ever worked with. Her manner and positive attitude make others want to help out.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards December 2012

- ▣ Bob Cracolici, USF Library Special Collections, has a wonderful sense of humor. He is polite and conscientious with other staff, students, and patrons. His attention to detail is second to none. Bob is a tremendous asset to the Special Collections department, and a great example of the integrity the USF community expects and deserves.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards December 2012

- ▣ Raymond Budd, Registrar's Office, pays close attention to detail and is an excellent example of how someone's work ethic should be. He leads by example, and will do what he needs to do to get the job done. His attitude and demeanor is refreshing. He is courteous and professional at all times.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards December 2012

- ▣ Jason Link, College of Nursing, is a team player. He is always cooperative, helpful, and friendly. His work performance is exemplary. Jason will work his hardest to get the job done completely and accurately. Not only is he willing to be helpful, but he is competent with his helpfulness.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards December 2012

- ▣ Edgardo Valentin, Communication & Information Services, is superb at everything he does. He has brought new systems of organization to his office, and learns quickly. He adds so much to the collegiality of the department and gets along well with everyone. Everyone adores Edgardo.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards November 2012

- ▣ Jeff Boe, College of the Arts, is always pleasant, courteous, and helpful, no matter what is asked of him. He is always willing to make time to assist students, staff, or faculty with any technical or production issues they are having. Jeff's commitment to USF is blazingly strong, and he shows it in everything he does. He is an exceptional employee

Staff Quiet Quality Awards November 2012

- ▣ Amy Fletcher, School of Music, is always professional and courteous. She has excellent rapport with students, faculty, and staff throughout the College of the Arts, and goes out of her way to help. Amy also has an upbeat personality, and a great sense of humor that comes through in everything she does. Her self-direction and commitment to the School is exemplary.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards October 2012

- ▣ Cathy Gray, Administrative Services, is always patient and is remarkable in her kindness to others. Cathy's work performance is outstanding. She always shows a positive attitude and is eager to help anyone in the office or on campus. She is truly a team player in every way. Administrative Services is really fortunate to have such a good employee.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards October 2012

- ▣ Lisa Kerris, Financial Aid, is cheerful and friendly, conscientious and helpful. Lisa is so considerate to all students, helps walk them through all of the confusing forms, and assists them on the computer. Lisa is an asset to the Financial Aid Department.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards October 2012

- ▣ Lauren Dabney, Student Health Services, is the consummate professional in assisting international students in joining the USF Community or maintaining their enrollment. Most of all, she is warm, empathetic, and supportive of students who are going through a tough time. She feels her duties to our students are sacred and she is the ultimate USF Ambassador.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards October 2012

- ▣ Mary Smith, College of Education Dean's Office, is very professional and has a very good sense of humor. Mary is a very conscientious person in that she stands for what is right, has a good sense of what is right or wrong, and is honest and upright. Mary is willing to help others in any way that she can and does so on a daily basis. She always has a welcoming smile.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Deborah Ruhland, Housing & Residential Education, is always very professional in her demeanor. She maintains a positive attitude, even in stressful situations and gets along well with everyone. DJ can always be relied upon to complete any task accurately and timely. DJ is definitely a team player who is always willing to help.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Sandy Lopez, Student Affairs Shared Services Center, is one of the most considerate and loving people you will ever meet. She understands how important a warm and caring work environment is to employee success and happiness. Sandy has taken on numerous responsibilities and handles them with grace and dignity.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Michael Bray, Physical Plant, takes great pride in his work, and has a great work ethic. Mike has consistently worked hard to make sure his tasks are completed within a reasonable time. Mike has a great working relationship with not only his fellow coworkers, but also vendors and contractors. He has a wealth of knowledge and experience and is very helpful.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Brandy Ezrow, Financial Aid, is an exemplary employee. Brandy uses a detail oriented approach to new tasks. Brandy has proved to be a reliable, dedicated, and conscientious employee that can always be counted on to get the job done. She is a highly valued employee in the office and an asset to the USF system.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Tracey Marlowe, Foundation-Business and Financial Services, is conscientious about all her work areas. Tracey maintains a courteous and positive working attitude both in her verbal, as well as written communications. Tracey works well with all employees she deals with in the Department, the Foundation, and the University.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Nancy Morris, Department of English, is a staff person who is present and helpful in a very professional, patient, and friendly manner. Nancy is efficient and consistent. She goes out of her way to make people feel welcome. Nancy is a reliable, thorough, and welcome presence in the Department of English.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards September 2012

- ▣ Nick Hage, Information Technology, is highly motivated resulting in high productivity. He works well with other individuals and departments to enhance the productivity of the entire organization. Nick consistently demonstrates professionalism in performance of the job, and produces work of the highest professional quality.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards August 2012

- ▣ Denis Lawrence, Campus Recreation, always portrays himself in a very positive and professional manner. His attitude is very positive and willing to do whatever it takes for the department. He is always willing to go the extra effort in completing a project or even initiating a special project.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards August 2012

- ▣ Cathy Batista da Silva, Environmental & Occupational Health, has a very positive attitude and works until her job is done. She has excellent relationships with all faculty, staff, and students. She is one of a kind! Cathy performs her duties in an exemplary fashion and ALWAYS with a smile.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards August 2012

- ▣ Sandra Malench, Electrical Engineering, is reliable, honest, and always willing to help. Sandra always has a smile on her face and a calm, soothing voice. She handles her responsibilities with grace and professionalism, always ensuring accuracy, organization, and poise. Sandra is a great asset to our team.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards August 2012

- ▣ Karen Glazebrook, Continuing Education, is extremely meticulous about how she performs her job duties. She works well with all of her co-workers, as well as others in the University. Karen is always cheerful and upbeat and always has a smile on her face.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards August 2012

- ▣ Lisa Adkins, Childhood Education and Literacy Studies, is self-directed in initiating and completing tasks. Lisa is a wonderful team member always looking at the glass as half full. She identifies tasks that need to be done and works to complete those tasks independently. Lisa is an exceptional collaborator & is a wonderful mentor for others.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2012

- ▣ Megan Barrios, Department of Marketing in the College of Business, is very professional in manner and attitude, and is a good listener. You get the feeling she respects her work and the people she works with. Megan always does more than anticipated. She is very quiet and incredibly efficient and we are lucky to have her.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2012

- ▣ Adrienne McCain, College of Arts & Sciences, is very professional. She works well with other staff, students, and faculty. She has established a great rapport with all of the people she interacts with. Adrienne really goes above and beyond to help all the students in the graduate program to create an atmosphere promoting graduate student success.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2012

- ▣ Carla McClellan, Physical Plant, maintains a professional attitude at all times. Carla helps her team mates any time she is needed and can assist. Carla values her team mates and is very conscientious of their needs. In helping them, she is helping the mission of the USF community.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2012

- ▣ Donna Luther, College of Education-USFSM, is well liked by her colleagues with her positive attitude and sense of humor. Donna is always available to help a team member when needed. She provides services to all in an “above and beyond” manner day in and day out and always with a smile. Donna is a wonderful asset for the College of Education.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2012

Award
Recipient

- Ernesto Zota, USF Health Receiving, is very conscientious in his work. He is kind and always offering to help anybody do anything. Mr. Zota is very responsible in his position and we can always count on him to do his job above and beyond expectations. Mr. Zota makes USF Health a happier place to work.

Staff Senate

Staff Senate

Staff Senate

Student Success

Homecoming 2012

Homecoming 2012

Baked Goods Giveaway

Baked Goods Giveaway

Staff Senate

Baked Goods Giveaway

GO BULLS!

Staff Senate

Staff Senate

