NEW STUDENT CONNECTIONS

Want to make friends, get connected to the USF campus, and have a successful transition to college? New Student Connections is the guide to a great first semester.

FIRST FIFTY DAYS: is a series of campus programs and services designed to connect you to your new campus community. Individualized coaching is available to students seeking support as they manage their transition into USF.

PEER ADVISOR LEADERS (PALS): are current students who are committed to making your transition to USF fun and successful. Feel free to contact the PALS in person, over the phone, or via email with anything you need!

CAMP U: In this off-campus adventure on August 16-18, you'll make friends, discover USF history and traditions, explore your personal strengths, and learn about involvement opportunities while understanding what it means to joining the Bull family!

WEEK OF WELCOME (WOW): is a campus-wide celebration each fall and spring that features tons of events and activities to welcome you to the USF family. The excitement begins in late August with events like Celebration: WOW Kick-off, Capture: Class Photo, and CHARGE: Grab Service by the Horns!

THE NETWORK: is here to help you make connections with other new students who share your same interests, passions, or hobbies via theme based "networks" that meet regularly during the first fifty days of the semester. Networks are led by current upperclassmen that are here to assist you in your transition to USF.

CULTURAL

RELIGIOUS AND SPIRITUAL LIFE:

(RSL) is an organization of religious professionals who have come together from a wide variety of religious traditions to serve the student body at USF. The RSL shall be a forum for the sharing of information and viewpoints helpful for the common task of the spiritual development of students at USF. As such, it shall serve as an official point of contact between the campus religious communities and the Division of Student Affairs.

MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS

SAFE ZONE: is the University of South Florida's institutionally recognized LGBTW+ diversity training program that educates members of our campus community on advocacy for our Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender/Trans*, Queer/Question (LGBTQ+) peers by promoting understanding through developing and recognizing supportive allies. Trainings are available to become A Safe Zone Ally.

iBUDDY: iBuddy is a free 7-week program that takes place in both the fall and spring semesters. The program partners international and domestic students to increase cultural awareness and build lasting friendships through a series of campus events and social programs. The iBuddy program enhances and encourages out of classroom student engagement that assists participants in becoming global citizens.

INTERCULTURAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (ISLC): is designed to strengthen the engagement and retention of underrepresented students at the University of South Florida by providing inspiration, co-curricular connections, and campus resources to support their path to success

COLLEGES

ARTS AND SCIENCES

THE DEAN'S STUDENT LEADERSHIP SOCIETY: represents the College of Arts and Sciences at a variety of events, including scholarship banquets, alumni reunions, USF Family Weekend, Freshman Orientation, public lectures and Homecoming.

BEHAVIORAL AND COMMUNITY SCIENCES

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH STUDENT ORGANIZATION: serves as a forum for those with an interest in Behavioral Health. Their mission is to educate and increase awareness of Behavioral Health issues and projects within the United States and abroad. They provide ample service and learning opportunities to network with students, faculty and the greater Behavioral Health community.

CRIMINOLOGY GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATION: The purpose of the CGSO is to serve and advocate for graduate students within the department of Criminology both at the departmental and university levels. The CGSO is responsible for hosting workshops aimed at improving teaching and research effectiveness, organizing and implementing the annual departmental research symposium, addressing student concerns, enhancing communication between faculty and students, and assisting with orientation of incoming graduate students.

iLEAD, INSPIRE, NEWTWORK, CONNECT (ILINC) STUDENT ASSOCIATION: The mission of iLINC Co, the student association of the Rehabilitation & Mental Health Counseling program at The University of South Florida, is to lead, inspire, network and connect the students within the program to the bridge that will connect their present path to their future career goals.

SOCIAL WORK SOCIETY STUDENT ORGANIZATION (SWS): is housed within the USF School of Social Work, is a student organization open to all undergraduate and graduate students at the university. The primary aims of the society are twofold: First, to promote positive socialization among students interested in issues of social justice and positive social change; and second, to raise funds and engage in service activities that address human needs and social justice concerns both on campus and within communities locally, regionally, and nationally.

INSIDE ART: Since 2010, the USF Contemporary Art Museum, the USF College of Education, and the Hillsborough County Public Schools have been collaborating on Inside Art, an innovative web-based visual literacy program that integrates social studies with contemporary art in an examination and discussion of critical societal issues. In addition to the online curriculum, vital components of the program include professional development opportunities for teachers and field trips to USF for K-12 students.

BUSINESS

THE BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT: A way of connecting employers with students, faculty, staff, student organizations at the USF Muma College of Business. It helps create relationships that lead to career placement, increase brand presence, increase involvement in student projects, participation at career events, and hands-on research.

COLLEGES

EDUCATION

TUTOR-A-BULL: This program increases motivation for learning, provides experiences for education majors to practice teaching in real-life settings, and provides academic support to middle and high school students who are struggling in school.

JANE GOODALL ROOTS & SHOOTS PROGRAM: The USF/HCPS Elementary Partnership is focused on the learning outcomes of children in grades K-5. The administration at the partnership schools and the faculty from the College of Education and the College of Arts and Sciences work collaboratively to facilitate enhanced learning opportunities for the teachers and children within the partnership schools. With kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, and 4th grade students at the helm, these Roots & Shoots projects will support the knowledge and understanding of life sciences, offer students the opportunity to engage in long-term investigations, and demonstrate how children can take a major role in evolving their community.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL (ACEI): A diverse global community dedicated to the education and development of children from birth through adolescence.

ALLIANCE OF HEALTH AND FITNESS PROFESSIONALS (AHFP): is an official USF student organization designed to provide exercise science majors with a variety of professional development and leadership experiences. Activities include preparing for certifications in the field, attending professional conferences, participating in volunteer community projects and programs, and coordinating many local educational and social events.

ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICAL ED. COLLEGE STUDENTS (APECS): is open to all students enrolled in the K-12 Physical Education Program. Social and professional meetings are conducted throughout the year. Professional service to the community is also provided by the association.

HONOR SOCIETIES

PI LAMBDA THETA (PLT): Founded in 1910, Pi Lambda Theta (PLT) is one of the most prestigious education honor societies. PLT is part of the Phi Delta Kappa (PDK) International family of education associations and is governed by the PDK International Board of Directors.

KAPPA DELTA PI (KDP): is an international honor society in Education, and the Lambda Tau chapter has been on the USF campus for over 44 years.

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY (EDUCARE): Students interested in the College of Education upon admission have the opportunity to live on-campus in a living learning community: a theme-based, academically centered residence hall. As a member of eduCARE, the College of Education's living learning community, students will have the opportunity to live amongst peers who share an appreciation for education. Students in eduCARE will enjoy academic support, guided career exploration.

THE SUNCOAST AREA TEACHER TRAINING & EDUCATION RESEARCH (SCATTER): is an award-winning teacher training program designed to enhance the outstanding teacher preparation programs offered within the USF College of Education. Its mission is to enhance the teaching profession by establishing high performance expectations for all members and offering research-based learning experiences that support exceptional instruction.

STUDENT COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN (SCEC): is an organization open to students from across the university who appreciate the diversity present in our schools and society and are interested in the education of children and young adults with exceptionalities. Activities of the USF Chapter include a variety of service projects, as well as support of the College of Education Children's Festival, Special Olympics, and field trips.

USF TRANSFER STUDENT ORGANIZATION (TSO): They intend to help guide transfer students in any area that deals with their transfer stage and continue to be a resource throughout their time at the University of South Florida. They will focus on professional, social, and community service aspects and act as a gateway for transfer students to get involved around campus, and become more active in the community.

COLLEGES

GLOBAL SUSTAINABILITY

STUDENTS IN FREE ENTERPRISE: The mission of this student group is to serve members of the community through educational outreach projects that embody social, economic, environmental, personal, ethical, and sustainable change.

STUDENT ENVIRONMENTAL ASSOCIATION: The mission of this student group is to educate the community about the environment and work towards making USF more environmentally-friendly.

USGBC STUDENTS AT USF: The mission of this student group is to create a mutually beneficial relationship among USF students, the Tampa Bay community, and local business leaders in the area of green building and sustainability.

ALLIANCE OF CONCERNED STUDENTS: The mission of this student group is to explore and advocate for alternative education, alternative media, and resource management and sustainability.

NECESSARY IMPROVEMENTS TO TRANSFORM OUR ENVIRONMENT: The mission of this student group is to advocate continuous campus safety and student health.

HONORS COLLEGE

HONORS STUDENT COUNCIL: is the student led organization that sponsors a number of academic, social, and service activities tailored to the Honors student throughout the semester. Their vision is to create an active and consistent community within the Honors College capable of promoting ongoing honors programs.

HONORS PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA: The Honors Philharmonic Orchestra made its debut in fall 1997, playing Phantom of the Opera, The Entertainer, and even an original piece that was composed by a student. The unique feature of the Honors Philharmonic is that the participants are not music majors - they are students who enjoy playing. So dust off that instrument and join them!

MARINE SCIENCE

THE MARINE SCIENCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE (MSAC): is the student government and only student organization for the College of Marine Science (CMS). Their main purpose is to provide an interface between students and faculty at CMS and to improve the academic atmosphere and quality of life for Marine Science students and faculty. They have an open membership to all students, regardless of level or discipline and encourage non Marine Science students to become more involved with CMS activities.

COLLEGES

NURSING

SIGMA THETA TAU: The mission of the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International, is advancing world health and celebrating nursing excellence in scholarship, leadership, and service. Their vision is to be the global organization of choice for nursing.

USF HEALTH INTERNATIONAL: is deeply committed to enhancing the health of populations worldwide through an interdisciplinary collaboration between the USF colleges of medicine, nursing, pharmacy and public health and the school of physical therapy. At USF Health, faculty, staff and students work collaboratively with academic institutions, health care facilities and communities across nations to exchange knowledge, build capacity and bring the latest in health care innovation, thus making life better globally.

PHARMACY

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY STUDENT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL (SLC): The SLC seeks to develop its future pharmacy leaders by establishing a culture of camaraderie and unity among all COP students. The purpose of the Student Leadership Council is to do just that, build leaders. Speaking up at Student Body meetings, joining in Leadership Guest Speaker Series discussions, participating in COP events and fundraisers, and contributing to the decision-making processes within the organization are all essential aspects of being a leader. In these ways, the SLC seeks to involve and develop every single one of its members through opportunities that shape the USF COP culture and allow each SLC member to further develop and define his or her leadership identity.

AMERICAN PHARMACISTS ASSOCIATION ACADEMY OF STUDENT PHARMACISTS (APHA-A SP): The mission is to be the collective voice of student pharmacists, to provide opportunities for professional growth, to improve patient care, and to envision and advance the future of pharmacy.

STUDENT NATIONAL PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION (SNPhA): is an educational service association of pharmacy students who are concerned about pharmacy and healthcare related issues, and the poor minority representation in pharmacy and other health-related professions. The purpose of SNPhA is to plan, organize, coordinate and execute programs geared toward the improvement for the health, educational, and social environment of the community.

PUBLIC HEALTH

PUBLIC HEALTH STUDENT ASSOCIATION (PHSA): represents students in their pursuit of a graduate level degree in Public Health or an undergraduate Public Health minor and encourages active participation in developing community public health awareness. It is also the purpose of the Association to encourage the interaction of students with faculty and staff so students may have some impact over program matters, knowledge of educational opportunities, and guidance in directing their Public Health careers.

PUBLIC HEALTH STUDENT ASSOCIATION (PHSA): represents students in their pursuit of a graduate level degree in Public Health or an undergraduate Public Health minor and encourages active participation in developing community public health awareness. It is also the purpose of the Association to encourage the interaction of students with faculty and staff so students may have some impact over program matters, knowledge of educational opportunities, and guidance in directing their Public Health careers.

Non-major courses in both theatre and dance are also available (i.e. fundamentals of ballet, fundamentals of modern, introduction to dance, introduction to theatre, voice body improvisation, etc.). Interested non-majors, who would like to take upper level dance technique courses, should audition for appropriate placement.

TAP AT USF: As tap is not currently offered in the dance program at the University of South Florida, Tap at USF formed as an organization dedicated to studying the unique style. Tap at USF accepts all levels of dancers and is welcome to anyone currently studying at the University of South Florida.

RESEARCH & TRAVEL

OFFICE FOR UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH (OUR)

At USF, undergraduate research is broadly defined as a project that enables individual students or groups of students to pose or work from a defined research question, apply methods of inquiry to generate findings, and share the findings with others through presentations and publication.

WORKSHOPS: OUR is committed to providing comprehensive training and support to undergraduate researchers. To that end, the OUR offers an extensive selection of workshops throughout the academic year that focus on skills acquisitions and professional development.

USF WORLD

USF World leads the university's involvement in the international arena engaging with the world and in the world. Our goals work to promote a global culture at USF, globalize student success, enhance global initiatives within the university system and deepen global engagement.

HEALTH & FITNESS

WELLNESS CENTER

WELLNESS CENTER: Here you can meet with a registered dietitian, get a blood pressure screening, check your height, weight and BMI, pick up free condoms, and gather information on a variety of health and wellness topics. Their goal is to help you adopt a balanced lifestyle. They can help connect you with professionals who support different aspects of your well-being by putting you in touch with members of the Counseling Center, Student Health Services, Campus Recreations, and the Center for Victim Advocacy and Violence Prevention.
